

Energy Career Crossword Puzzle

DO YOU LIKE WORDS?

Nearly every job you will have requires that you use your language skills to communicate clearly and listen well.

Try this crossword puzzle to show your mastery of these Energy Career words.

ACROSS

5. This person keeps track of money the company earns and spends.
6. Something that shows the amount of money a customer owes for energy.
7. This person helps to repair transmission lines to restore power after an outage.
11. An _____ Executive is a person who works with big customers like hospitals, shopping centers, and manufacturers to help them buy and use energy.
12. Energy customers are interested in this as a way to save money and help protect the environment.
13. Metallurgists may advise about this method of joining pieces of metal.
14. This person promotes the company's products and services.
16. An _____ Trader is a person who buys extra power from other utilities to make sure customers have enough on really hot days.
17. Someone who buys and uses energy.
19. This person studies how wildlife is affected by what an energy company does.
20. A _____ Fitter is a person who installs and fixes gas lines, meters and appliances.

DOWN

1. Something you know how to do.
2. A _____ Center is the place where customer service associates work to answer customers' questions.
3. Something that is unloaded from rail cars by plant helpers and plant specialists, so it can be burned to create energy.
4. Another name for an energy company.
8. There are four kinds of these people who work for energy companies: electrical, mechanical, chemical and civil.
9. This is a subject you should study now if you're interested in an environmental career in the energy industry.
10. A large thing that a civil engineer might build to create hydroelectric power.
15. A _____ Street Helper is a beginning worker on gas construction crews.
18. Utility workers spend most of their day here.